

Splendid Expressions

Week 17

We publish a free quiz from 'Splendid Expressions' every day, Monday to Friday. Try each quiz on the dates below.

<https://www.splendid-speaking.com/splendid-expressions/>

Worksheet for Week 17 (of 26)

Monday Topic: Communication

- 1) Teenagers and parents aren't always on the same which is probably why communication is sometimes difficult.
 - 2) We get on like a on fire and have such fun when we meet up.
 - 3) He always expects me to be at his beck and but I've got work of my own to do.
-

Tuesday Topic: Health and Illness

- 4) I've got a headache. Have you got any pain-killers?
 - 5) Jenny said she felt on top of the after her massage at the beauty salon last week.
 - 6) Anyway, it's great to hear you're back on your again after the operation.
-

Wednesday Topic: Learning

- 7) I thought the trainer was encouraging us to work harder but I got the end of the stick.
- 8) I haven't had the chance to practise my German for years so it will probably be a bit
- 9) Sorry, but I've got no idea what the manager wants. As usual, he's kept me in the

Thursday Topic: Crime and Punishment

- 10) Once you have a bad reputation, people always to conclusions about you for ever after.
- 11) Everybody knew he was stealing from the company but for some reason the management turned a eye to it.
- 12) You need to be careful as a tourist shopping in the market. There's always someone who will take you for a if you're not careful.

Friday Topic: Business

- 13) If you're hard why don't you get a part-time job during the school holidays?
- 14) If you don't mind living from hand to there are some wonderful opportunities to do voluntary work abroad.
- 15) . Footballers these days are of money and act more like film stars than sportsmen.

Just published!

Check out this new publication, a 130-page downloadable resource with all Splendid Expressions along with activities to help you remember and use them.

<https://splendidspeaking.gumroad.com/l/pmpkq>